

HISTORY TEACHER

Windsor School is a unique establishment, equipped with world-class facilities, located in Nassau, The Bahamas at Albany. We are crafting a forward-thinking educational experience and are looking for energetic and adventurous teachers, who genuinely want to make a difference.

Windsor School is an innovative coeducational day and boarding school that is built around our elite Golf and Tennis Academies. Our 150 upper school students all take business classes in addition to typical US course load. On our Albany campus, we serve approximately 250 students in grades 6 - 12, from 37 countries, with a majority of our students local to the Bahamas; twenty percent of our student body have earned scholarships to attend. In addition to our established Athletic Academies, students can also choose to attend intensive Academy Programs in Marine Biology, Music, Equestrian, Rowing, and STEM that take advantage of our location and facilities.

We are currently looking to hire a dynamic, full-time grade 9-12 History teacher beginning in the 2022-23 academic year. The ideal candidate will have the ability to foster engaging discussion and develop students' skills in primary-source analysis, close reading, historical-thinking and writing. We are especially interested in candidates who have expertise and experience in multiple areas of world history, including the history of the United States, Europe, and the Atlantic World. The ideal candidate will also be well-versed in the Advanced Placement curriculum for one or both of US and European History. A typical teaching load is four classes and three preparations, with approximately twenty students per class. A minimum of three years experience teaching high school-level history courses; an advanced degree, experience teaching upper-level courses, and experience in independent schools are preferred. Interested candidates should contact:
