

ENGLISH TEACHER

Windsor School is a unique establishment, equipped with world-class facilities, located in Nassau, The Bahamas at Albany. We are crafting a forward-thinking educational experience and are looking for energetic and adventurous teachers, who genuinely want to make a difference.

Windsor School is an innovative coeducational day and boarding school that is built around our elite Golf and Tennis Academies. Our 150 upper school students all take business classes in addition to typical US course load. On our Albany campus, we serve approximately 250 students in grades 6 - 12, from 37 countries, with a majority of our students local to the Bahamas; twenty percent of our student body have earned scholarships to attend. In addition to our established Athletic Academies, students can also choose to attend intensive Academy Programs in Marine Biology, Music, Equestrian, Rowing, and STEM that take advantage of our location and facilities.

We are currently looking to hire a flexible Upper School English Teacher well versed in the Advanced Placement curriculum. A typical load is four classes with three preparations of approximately twenty students in each class. A strong candidate will have a minimum of three to five years of teaching experience in high-school level English courses; an advanced degree, advanced courses teaching experience and/or independent school experience are preferred. Interested candidates should contact:
